

18. There is a relationship between faith and assurance
19. The gospel secures justification
20. The gospel is something one gets
21. The gospel is simple
22. The gospel is about man, from God, and for man
23. The gospel deals with man's legal problem – sin
24. Christ is the Savior from what one has done
25. The offices and benefits of Christ are often separated

18. There is a relationship between, assurance, faith, and obedience
19. The gospel secures justification and sanctification
20. The gospel is something God chooses to do
21. The gospel is simple, but not shallow
22. The gospel is about man, from God, and for God
23. The gospel deals with man's legal problem – sin – and man's moral problem – the heart
24. Christ is the Savior from what one has done as well as what one is
25. The offices of Christ are always combined

This is a summary from Dr. Bruce Bickel's book,
"Light and Heat: The Puritan View of the Pulpit and The Focus of the Gospel in Puritan Preaching."

This book can be obtained by going to the publisher's web site, www.northamptonpress.org and scrolling down the page until you see the book cover, title and author.